Dear Amy,

Over the past few years, you have become a trusted and valued partner in helping to create new and exciting programming for our clients.

From selection, through contract and beyond, you have been an excellent liaison who is not only committed to selecting the perfect celebrity personality, but also to facilitating enduring relationships on our behalf. At each turn, you have provided solid counsel, found creative solutions in highly time-sensitive situations and anticipated our every need.

I highly recommend your services to my colleagues.

Best wishes,

Jennifer O'Neill
