THE FREEDOM TO SEE.
THE POWER TO DO.

October 3, 2006

Dear Amy:

Congratulations on the creation of your endeavor! Having worked closely with you for almost a decade, it is my pleasure to attest to your outstanding abilities not only in helping us identify the appropriate celebrity for our public relations programs but also in helping manage every detail from contract development to final payment. Your professionalism, enthusiasm and willingness to always go above and beyond to negotiate the best possible deals for us is truly unique and we are proud to consider you a true partner.

We also are proud that the award-winning programs you helped us create -- with such celebrities as Sally Field, Rob Lowe, Noah Wylie, Joy Behar and Danny Glover -- have not only been highly successful but also have been highly enjoyable thanks to your ongoing guidance and expertise.

Congratulations again and thanks for always being a shining light!

Best,
